Have you ever wondered what it’s like to help curate a museum exhibition? Or to design an interactive art workshop? How about working with objects and artwork in museum collections?

Since 1999, Studio Institute’s Arts Intern Program has provided early-career opportunities for hundreds of skilled college students who are interested in the art and museum field!

These paid summer internships at New York City museums and arts organizations are open to NYC college students who have completed their sophomore year and have high financial need.

Internships are available in a wide variety of departments, including Curatorial, Exhibitions, Education, Marketing, Collections, and more.

Students work side-by-side with experienced staff, applying and learning important skills, while learning first-hand how their departments support a museum’s mission.

Events with museum experts and behind-the-scenes tours provide deep looks at and enriching conversations about the museum field.

Students also interact with like-minded peers, meeting, comparing notes, and learning from each other.

Arts Interns gain real-world experience, professional knowledge, and relationships that equip them for a future in museums and the art world!

ARTS INTERN PARTNERS

Arts Intern partners in NYC have included:
The Studio Museum in Harlem, Brooklyn Museum, El Museo del Barrio, Madison Square Park Conservancy, Museum of the City of New York, MoMA PS1, New Museum, Noguchi Museum, Staten Island Museum, The Rubin Museum of Art, and many more

TO LEARN MORE

Contact: artsintern@studioinstitute.org
Visit us: artsintern.org